OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub. : Scheme of Management of Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Adarsha Mahavidyalayas (Model Degree Colleges) in Assam

Government has introduced a scheme with central assistance for establishment of Model Degree Colleges in educationally backward districts where Gross Enrolment Ratio (GER) for higher education was less than the national GER (19%) in the year 2008-2009.

The Government Model Degree Colleges so established will be named after PANDIT DEENDAYAL UPADHYAYA, a great thinker, philosopher, economist, sociologist of the country. The Government Model Degree Colleges will hence be known as PANDIT DEENDAYAL UPADHYAYA ADARSHA MAHAVIDYALAYA.

For Providing quality Higher Education compatible to the one available in the best institutes in the country, the Government aims at transforming these institutes as centre for excellence and decided to set up PANDIT DEENDAYAL UPADHYAYA ADARSH MAHAVIDYALAYAS in Educationally Backward Districts (EBDs). Although initially these institutes are developed as institutes for Higher Secondary and Under Graduate level teachings, the government also has the plan to introduce Post Graduate (PG) Level Courses in these institutes in future.

For smooth functioning of the Government aforesaid institutes the following guidelines have been issued-
