group of 18 to 30 years from various universities across India shall participate in the Conference, the focal points of which will cover faith and affinity towards politics and parliamentary democracy, plurality of thought, the essence and spirit of the Constitution, the need for ethics in public life, the vision of sustainable development and the emergence of an enlightened new world through information gateways. The discussions will lay focus on democracy, politics and the Constitution of India, and the National Students' Parliament aims to direct the power and possibilities of democracy and politics towards world peace and sustainable development.

Youth icons and leaders from various walks of life will guide the discussions in the plenary and regional sessions and interact with the youth leading to a Declaration which will be forwarded to State and National level Legislative and Government bodies for appropriate action. Students can register in this event and get all necessary information by logging in to our official website, www.festivalondemocracy.in to become the FoD's invaluable strands and interact with an exemplary cross-section of some of the finest young minds of the country. Student delegates shall avail accommodation, travel and canteen facilities free of charge, while travel charges to and from Kerala will have to be borne by the delegates themselves.

In this regard, I courteously request you to:

- Nominate an adequate number of college /research students who belong in the age group of 18 to 30 years, from your State/UT to participate in the National Students Parliament, Kerala - 2019 from 23rd to 25th February 2019 at the Kerala Legislature Complex, Thiruvananthapuram.
- A short video clip may kindly be sent to cpsta@niyamasaha.nic.in containing your message to be shown at the National Students' Parliament.

With the warmest of regards,
