HIGHER & TECHNICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Points relating to Directorate of Higher Education:

Completion of promotion.

63. Hon'ble Chief Minister, Assam directed the Director of Higher Education to take immediate steps for completion of promotion for various grades of college teachers within a time frame of two months.

Appointment of Assam Professors

64. Besides Hon'ble CM instructed the Director Higher Education to make necessary arrangement of appointment of the Assistant Professors by November, which had already been recommended and selected by Governing Body of different colleges.

65. The Hon'ble CM desires that the process of the Cabinet Memo of the Assam College Teachers Recruitment Service Commission be expediated so that the recruitment of the vacant post of the Assistant Professor can be filled up at earliest.

66. In regards to the distribution of scooty, Hon'ble Chief Minister Assam directed that no approval of the higher education department is required for distribution of remaining scooty and instructed the Director, Higher Education to complete the task immediately.

Pension -

67. Hon'ble Chief Minister issued direction to the Director of Higher Education to issue necessary instructions to all colleges to forward pension papers directly to the Accountant General Assam through Kritagyata portal.

Opening of Science Stream =

68. Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam issued direction that all academic issues of the colleges should be properly examined by the Director, Higher Education. The introduction of the science stream for another 10 numbers of colleges should be considered in the next year. Simultaneously post creation proposal for science stream also to be sent immediately. Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam also instructed to the Director, Higher Education that no police verification for college teachers is required.

- In this respect an undertaking from the college teachers will be required.

69. DHE Assam has elaborately explained the present status of literary pension and other such schemes. Hon'ble Chief Minister, Assam directed that the literary pension should be considered only for those persons who are awardees of Sahitya Academy and other similar recognition of the State and National Level.

70. Status of disciplinary proceedings against the fake Ph.D. holders has been explained by the Secretary of Higher Education and the Director, higher education. Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam directed that the disciplinary proceedings must be completed within a time frame of 6 months. He also issued a direction that the department should ensure that no procedural lapses should occur.

Affiliation of Colleges =

71. Director, Higher Education has explained the present status of Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Model Degree Colleges. Hon'ble Chief Minister, Assam desired that these colleges should be affiliated to nearest Universities, and in absence or refusal by such nearest universities, those MDCs may apply for affiliation to newly established Universities. Further he instructed these MDCs should start postgraduate courses so that State Government objectives are fulfilled and more student can take admission in post graduate classes.
72. Hon'ble CM also instructed that those government colleges for which the required quantity of land is not available should be shifted to places where land is available. In this connection, Hon'ble Chief Minister Assam had cited the example of Govt. Law College Silchar. On the other hand, the location of Women's college at Batadraba should be finalized immediately and the file may be endorsed to the Hon'ble Chief Minister for timely selection of the site.
73. In respect of various issues of Universities, the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam has expressed his concern about the delay in post creation. He directed that post creation should be in such a way that the university can apply for 12th B recognition. Hon'ble Chief Minister Assam also issued a direction that all new Universities should conduct their examination by their own staff and systems. In connection with the nomination of MLA for executive councils of new Universities, Hon'ble Chief Minister Assam directed that the higher education department may issue notification for selection of MLAs since the relevant Act has no such mandatory provision for selection of MLAs by the Assembly speaker.

Points related to Assam Publication Board

74. HCM has suggested selecting noted writer and author for "literary pension".
75. Secretary, Publication Board Assam has briefed the progress of the Board in the last five years. As the sale of books published by the Board is increasing every year, HCM has advised publishing more valuable books.
76. HCM has reviewed the progress of the forthcoming Book fair. Hon'ble CM instructed to the Secretary, Publication Board to organize jointly with All Assam Book Publishers and Sellers Association.
77. Secretary, PBA has brought to notice the SSA book supply matter. He has explained that as the PBA is the biggest book publisher and supplier in Assam, SSA should give preference (contract) to PBA to supply a minimum of fifty percent of total "SSA" s school library books" for the coming session.

91. All important matters requiring financial approval be brought to the Hon'ble Chief Minister appraisal and decision directly

Hon'ble Chief Minister advised all the Officials of the Education Department, in general, to render public service with all dedication and commitment and ensure that the public delivery of services is prompt and transparent in their respective offices.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks from the Chair.
